Market Commentary

DPLK Generali Equity recorded a performance of -6.17% in April 2024. The JCI recorded a performance of -0.75% in April 2024 hovering around the 7200 level. The lackluster performance of the stock market could be attributed to the low optimism of market participants. Firstly, there were signs that the FED might delay the rate cuts due to the high US inflation, high unemployment, and slowing US economic growth, which may have contributed to the deteriorating global market sentiment. Secondly, there were unstable geopolitical events like the increasing Middle East tensions and the unresolved Ukraine conflict. Lastly, there was a Rp 15.9 trillion outflow of foreign funds from the stock market from the foreign sales of domestic stock. Regardless, the Indonesian economy still supported growth, as shown by the high manufacturing PMI (52.9 in April vs 54.2 in March), a slightly lowered inflation rate (3% YoY in April vs 3.05% YoY in March), an increased GDP growth rate (1Q24 5.11% vs 4Q23 5.04%). Nevertheless, the following large-cap stocks represented the stock market movement this month (e.g., BBRI -18.35%, BMR1 -4.83%, BBCA -2.73%, TLKM -8.65%, ASII +0.00%, BBNI -11.02%, PGAS +8.09%, AMMN +10.86%, BREN +71.63%, BRPT +7.94%).

Market Commentary

DPLK Generali Fixed Income recorded performance of -1.42% in April 2024. In April 2024, the 5-year government bond yield rose rapidly from 6.704% to 7.241% and the 10-year yield from 6.791% to 7.348%. The FED rate again remained at the target range of 5.25%-5.50% in April. In addition, the reports of rising US inflation (3.5% YoY in Mar 2024) show that FED rate cuts may be delayed, which led to slowed US economic growth. Domestic markets responded negatively to the news, as shown by the outflow of foreign funds of Rp 15.6 trillion from the bond market. Furthermore, Bank Indonesia (BI) reported that Indonesia's foreign exchange reserves decreased in April (USD136.2 billion in April vs USD140.4 billion in March) following the weakening of the Rupiah (IDR/USD 16,262 in April vs 15,855 in March). Meanwhile, BI had decided to hike its rates to 6.25% to preserve future stability amidst global uncertainty and maintain the low inflation target.

Market Commentary

DPLK Generali Money Market recorded performance of +0.47% in April 2024. The BI Board of Governors Meeting agreed on 23rd – 24th April 2024 to raise the BI-Rate by 25bps to 6.25%, while also increasing the Deposit Facility (DF) rate and Lending Facility (LF) rate by 25bps to 5.50% and 7.00% respectively. The decision to raise the BI Rate strengthens Rupiah stability against the impact of deteriorating global risk and as a pre-emptive and forward-looking measure to maintain inflation within the 2.5%±1% target corridor in 2024 and 2025 in line with the pro-stability monetary policy stance. Meanwhile, Bank Indonesia will maintain pro-growth macroprudential and payment system policies to foster sustainable economic growth. Furthermore, Bank Indonesia will hold an accommodative macroprudential policy posture to revive bank lending/financing to businesses and households. Payment system policy will be oriented towards bolstering reliable infrastructure and reinforcing the structure of the payment system industry, while expanding acceptance of payment system digitalisation.
