Market Commentary

Generali Equity Value recorded a performance of +1.62% in August 2025. The JCI recorded a performance of +4.63% in August 2025, rising from the 7500 level to the 7800 level. Overall, the domestic equity market strengthened in August, supported by both domestic and global monetary policy developments. Bank Indonesia maintained its pro-growth stance, and the surprise rate cut helped boost investor confidence and improve liquidity, particularly benefiting the banking and consumer sectors. Additionally, dovish signals from the U.S. Federal Reserve fueled optimism around potential rate cuts, which are expected in the coming month. This global easing trend could provide Bank Indonesia with further room to lower rates if necessary. Despite rising political unrest toward the end of August, Indonesia's macroeconomic fundamentals remained supportive, such as a relatively stable inflation rate (2.31% in Aug25 vs. 2.37% in Jul25), strengthening Rupiah (IDR/USD 16,150 on Aug25 vs. 16,270 on Jul25), and sufficient foreign exchange reserve surplus (USD 150.7 billion in Jul25). Nonetheless, the following large-cap stocks drove the stock market movement this month (e.g., BCSA -2.42%, WIF1 -3.93%, PSAB +51.96%, BBRI +9.16%, BMRI +4.88%, ANTM +6.67%, WIRG +66.36%, BREN +15.34%, PTRO +0.26%, DSSA +53.09%).
