Market Commentary

DPLK Generali Equity Bravo recorded a performance of 4.18% in August 2026. Indonesia's stock market extended its recovery into a second straight month, with the JCI closing August 2026 at 6,525.48, up 5.48% month-on-month, though still down roughly 24.5% year-to-date. The index traded in a volatile 6,000–6,650 range through the month, rattled midway by MSCI's decision to drop 10 Indonesian stocks from its index (effective September 1) but supported by bargain-hunting and easing Middle East supply concerns. Foreign investors turned decisively bullish, posting around Rp11.09 trillion in net buying for the month, even as the cumulative year-to-date foreign sell position remained deep at roughly Rp70.36 trillion. Banking blue chips, led by BBRI and BBCA, and commodity-linked names drew the heaviest foreign interest, while industrial, energy, and financial sectors paced the gains.
